Our Gear Experts are here to find solutions to your problems. This is why we've been looking for non-traditional products during the current global COVID-19 situation.

We have sourced and are now stocking 80% Ethanol Hand Sanitizer in bulk from a local distillery near our Dallas, TX location.

We have committed to large bulk purchases and are able to provide this hand sanitizer at a lower price than if you were to buy individual bottles, and we're passing those savings along to you.
